Before you check Box D, E, or F below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than 1 year are generally long-term (see instructions). For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note: You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 8a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. BERGER ACTION FUND, INC.

Conflict of Interest Policy

Berger Action Fund, Inc. (the "Corporation") is a Delaware nonprofit, nonstock corporation described in section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and is therefore subject to the Internal Revenue Code provisions applicable to social welfare organizations. Directors and officers of the Corporation also have legal obligations to exercise prudence and undivided loyalty to the Corporation in managing the Corporation's affairs. To the extent required by their particular responsibilities, all board members, officers, staff members, and other agents of the Corporation should be familiar with the specific provisions of the law applicable to the Corporation and its employees and agents. In order to help ensure that all directors, officers, and staff conduct themselves in accordance with the highest fiduciary standards, the Board of Directors of the Corporation has adopted this Policy.

Section 1. Statement of purpose. From time to time, in the life of every organization, conflicts of interest or the appearance of such conflicts arise in the organization's decision making process. It is imperative that the Corporation be exemplary in its handling of such situations. In adopting this Policy, the Board of Directors is mindful that the appearance that a decision of the Corporation has been improperly influenced by an individual with a conflict of interest can compromise the Corporation's ability to achieve its mission even if in fact there is no improper influence. For this reason, officers, directors, employees, and other agents of the Corporation must strive to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

Section 2. Conflicts of interest covered by this policy. This policy applies to all situations in which a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation: (1) is in a position to make, or exercise substantial influence over, a significant decision of the Corporation, and (2) has a material private interest (financial or otherwise) that could cause, or reasonably be perceived as causing, the individual to exercise his or her authority or influence in a manner not solely motivated by the best interests of the Corporation.

For purposes of this policy, a material private interest may arise in a transaction between the Corporation and: (1) a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation; (2) a family member, domestic partner, or business partner of such director, officer, employee or other agent of the Corporation; or (3) an organization in which any of the individuals listed above have a significant financial or non-financial interest.

Section 3. Disclosure of all conflicts and potential conflicts. Directors, officers, employees, and other agents of the Corporation have an obligation to promptly disclose to the President all conflicts covered by this policy or situations that might reasonably be thought to present conflicts covered by this policy.

To encourage continuing compliance with this disclosure obligation, every director and officer shall file an annual statement with the President listing the following affiliations that involve or could reasonably be expected to involve a conflict of interest, as defined above, covered by this policy: (1) employers, (2) board memberships, (3) significant financial interests of the individual or the individual's extended family, and (4) other significant personal involvements. Although only directors and officers are required to submit annual statements, all Corporation employees and agents shall promptly disclose any conflicts covered by this policy to the President of the Corporation.

If the Corporation learns of facts suggesting a conflict of interest that has not been disclosed, it shall seek clarification from the individual with a putative conflict of interest. The disinterested members of the Board of Directors have final authority to determine whether a conflict of interest actually exists.

Section 4. Recusal required when a conflict of interest exists. No director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation may take part in any decision by the Corporation in which such person has a material private interest or that would directly or indirectly benefit such person or any family member, domestic partner, business partner, or organization with which any of the foregoing has a formal relationship. Such director, officer, employee, or other agent may participate in discussions regarding the matter to be decided, but shall not be present when the decision is made.

Section 5. Procedure for approving transactions presenting a conflict of interest. In the case of any prospective transaction involving a conflict of interest of a director or other person with substantial influence over the Corporation's operations as a whole, the transaction must be approved by the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee thereof (not including any directors required to recuse themselves pursuant to Section 4 of this Policy). In other cases, the Board may delegate authority to approve the transaction to others.

The body approving a transaction shall make a reasonable investigation of alternative transactions not involving any conflict of interest and of the fair market value of the benefits the Corporation would obtain through the transaction. It shall not approve the transaction unless, based on any facts or data obtained in its investigation, it determines that (1) there are no reasonably available alternatives to the transaction providing more favorable terms to the Corporation; (2) the transaction is entirely fair to the Corporation, and the Corporation will not provide more than fair market value in return for the benefits it receives through the transaction; and (3) taking into account all relevant factors, including any potential appearance' of impropriety, the transaction is in the best interest of the Corporation.

Section 6. Recordkeeping. With respect to any Board discussion, decision or action involving matters covered by this Policy, the minutes of the Board meeting at which such discussion, decision or action takes place shall reflect in detail the Board deliberations and the voting process. In addition, copies shall be kept of any market data or information considered by the Board in approving or disapproving a proposed transaction. Similar records shall be kept of any discussion, decision or action involving matters covered by this Policy by a body other than the Board.

Section 7. Distribution of this policy. A copy of this Policy and Disclosure Statement shall be furnished annually to all directors, officers, employees, and other agents of the Corporation, and shall be furnished to all new directors, officers, employees, or other agents at that time they begin service to the Corporation.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I have carefully read the Conflict of Interest Policy, and in signing this Disclosure Statement, I have considered not only the literal expression of the policy, but its intent. Except as hereinafter stated, I do not, to the best of my knowledge, have a conflict of interest that may be seen as competing with the interests or concerns of Berger Action Fund, Inc., nor does any member of my extended family, or any organization to which my extended family or I have an allegiance, have such a competing concern.

If any situation should arise in the future that may create a conflict of interest, I will promptly and fully disclose the circumstances to the President.
